INTERNAL MEMO

FROM: DEPUTY VICE CHANCELLOR (A&SA) DATE: 4TH OCTOBER, 2026

TO: ALL STAFF AND STUDENTS REF: UoK/DVC (A&SA)/12 VOL.3/120

SUBJECT: RESUMPTION OF LECTURES

This is to bring to the attention of ALL students and staff that the strike launched at the University pavilion on Friday, 2nd October 2026 had been declared "unlawful and unprotected" by a court of competent jurisdiction on Wednesday, 30th September 2026. The court further restrained members of UASU, KUSU and KUDHEIHA in public universities from participating in the strike.

The launch of the strike should not have happened in the first place.

University of Kabianga management therefore takes this early opportunity to communicate to all students and staff that teaching and learning activities which were disrupted on Friday, 2nd October 2026 should resume on Monday, 5th October 2026 and continue in ALL campuses (Main Campus, Kapkatet Campus and Town Campus) without further delay or disruption.

Deans of Schools, Heads of Teaching Departments and Heads of Support Departments are advised to take charge and ensure prompt and seamless resumption of teaching and learning activities.
